

CI Capital Partners Has Signed a Definitive Agreement to Sell Interactive Health

New York, NY – July 1, 2015 – CI Capital Partners announced today that it has signed a definitive agreement to sell its portfolio company, Interactive Health, to FFL, a San Francisco-based private equity firm. Interactive Health is the largest U.S.-based, independent company offering integrated workplace wellness solutions to organizations in the United States. CI Capital acquired Interactive Health in partnership with the company's management in 2011. The sale is subject to customary closing conditions. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

For more than two decades, Interactive Health has worked with employers to create innovative wellness programs that actively engage employees to make lasting behavior changes and improve their overall health. Today, Interactive Health serves more than 2,000 employers and 750,000 program participants.

"We are deeply proud of the work that Interactive Health has done to make individuals healthier and create health care savings for customers," said Frederick J. Iseman, Chairman and CEO of CI Capital Partners. "We are confident that the company will continue its growth trajectory with its new partner."

Timothy Hall, Managing Director at CI Capital Partners said, "Throughout CI Capital's ownership, Interactive Health's management team did an excellent job of building a bigger company through organic growth and a strategic acquisition, all while continuing to improve the overall customer experience. We have enjoyed a productive partnership with Executive Chairman Joe O'Brien, CEO Cathy Kenworthy and the rest of the Interactive Health management team, and we wish them continued success moving forward."

"CI Capital has been incredibly supportive of the company's key operational and growth initiatives as we work towards our goals of improving individuals' health and providing excellent customer service," said Cathy Kenworthy, President and CEO of Interactive Health. "We are grateful for their partnership as we look forward to the next chapter in Interactive Health's development."
